

Could you, would you, join our Board of Trustees?

Does bullying happen? – YES

46% of young people say they have been bullied during their time at school,

4% of young people are frequently absent from school because of bullying,

38% of young people are affected by cyber bullying,

28% of these will not tell anyone,

38% of disabled children worry about being bullied.

Does it matter? – YES

The detrimental impact bullying can have on the physical, emotional, academic, social and personal wellbeing of children and young people cannot be underestimated. At best, bullying causes great distress which can continue right through adulthood. At worst, bullying can lead to self-harm and suicide.

Can you do anything? - YES

Apply to become a Trustee of BulliesOut, a registered charity providing help, support and information to those being bullied, those that bully, and the many who witness or are otherwise affected by bullying. This is our website <http://www.bulliesout.com/>.

The role of the Board of Trustees is to set the strategic direction, oversee its implementation and ensure good governance. Whilst these are part time, unpaid voluntary positions, the rewards come through shaping an organisation that improves, and even saves, the lives of young people.

Apart from a preparedness to commit the necessary time and effort, applications are sought from those with a business and/or Third Sector related background to reflect the fact that charities are very much businesses in how they operate.

For additional information or an application pack please contact us on 029 2056 8947 or email trustees@bulliesout.com. Please note that given the nature of the work we do, a full Criminal Records Bureau disclosure will be required prior to appointment.

Feel free to bring this to the attention of anyone for whom you believe it might be appropriate.